To the READER.

Gentlemen,

THE three former Sales of my Stock being here eſſay'd, and by the Gentlemen of this famous Univerſity incouraged, and carried off, they might reaſonably expect that this fourth and laſt, in Gratitude as well as Benefit, would be made amongſt them; together with the Theological Part of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Pocock's Library; which perhaps for their number are not eaſily parallell'd, or, when the Learned have occaſion for them, procurable. The Greek Fathers being of the beſt Paris Editions, the Latin of Eraſmus Correction and Publication; as alſo many other valuable Books, which will eaſily be diſcerned in the peruſal of the enſuing Catalogue. And ſince I have ſo fair an occaſion, I cannot but own my Obligations to this great Body of Learning, for their late charitable Relief of me, as alſo former Favours received from them; And becauſe I am willing that what I have ſhould be ſold for the further diſcharge of my Debts, I am with nothing more ſatisfied, than that my Books will be diſperſed amongſt my Friends.

Your humble and thankful Servant,

RICHARD DAVIS.
